Qualitative Measure of Progress (GPA)

Students must maintain the required grade point average (GPA) necessary to continue as degree candidates at the University. Therefore, they must maintain an academic standing consistent with the University's Academic Retention Policy as outlined in the University Catalog. If a student is dismissed from the University, their financial aid will be suspended. Academic Standing is reviewed at the end of each semester.

This policy states:

Graduate Students:

Warning: a graduate student whose cumulative GPA falls below a 3.0 will be placed on warning, indicating academic difficulty.

Probation: a graduate student on warning whose cumulative GPA falls below a 3.0 will be placed on probation, indicating serious academic difficulty.

Dismissal: a graduate student on probation whose cumulative and semester GPA fall below a 3.0 will automatically be dismissed from his/her program and the University. A graduate student will not be dismissed prior to attempting a minimum of 12 semester hours of coursework.

Florida International University

Law Students:

Probation: a law student whose GPA falls below a 2.0 at the close of the first semester will be placed on probation, indicating academic difficulty.

Dismissal: a law student whose cumulative GPA falls below a 2.0 after the second or any subsequent semester will be dismissed.

Whenever students are placed on warning or probation, their academic standing satisfies the qualitative measure for maintaining financial aid eligibility.

Medical Students:

Medical Student Evaluation and Promotion Committee

a. Statement of Purpose:

The purpose of the MSEPC is:

- i. To ensure that each student who graduates from Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine possesses the skills and knowledge necessary to assume the responsibilities of a medical doctor;
- ii. To evaluate academic performance in the required curriculum, to assess advancement to the next period (as this term is defined in this Medical Student Handbook), and to recommend appropriate intervention in the event of unacceptable academic performance; and
- iii. To evaluate personal qualities which bear on a student's professionalism and fitness to become a physician and recommend appropriate intervention. The MSEPC relies upon the cooperation, advice and judgment of faculty, students and administration to perform these duties.

Florida International University

Quantitative Measure of Progress (Pace/Time Frame)

Pace of Completion Requirement:

Undergraduate and graduate students must successfully complete 67% of the total number of all attempted credits taken at the University inclusive of the transfer credits accepted by the University at the end of each academic year. The completion rate is checked annually at the end of the spring semester. The percentage is calculated by dividing the total number of all credits earned including transfer credits, by the total number of all credits attempted including transfer credits accepted by the University.

Sample Academic Plans

- Academic Plan set at beginning of program
 - Differentiated by program of study
 - Differentiated via advisor/student collaboration
 - Counseling session
 - Potential Remediation Course (in pilot)
 - Critical Probation – 75% or more earned for degree
 - Prior to 75% completion – FA catches SAP cases
