Welcome!

For most of you, this is your first experience with SASFAA. Please let me be the first to say - we are thrilled you are here, and we are glad that you decided to make financial aid your chosen profession. This week will be intense, but we sincerely hope you make lifelong friendships and professional connections. The New Aid Officer Workshop is as much about what happens outside of the classroom as what happens inside so be sure to relax, enjoy and don't be afraid to ask questions! You are among friends, and by the end of the week we'll feel a lot more like family.

Please let any of the staff know if we can assist you during your stay.

Have fun and learn lots!

*Rate and amounts are subject to credit approval and based on credit and terms. Interest rates will be based on the term of your loan, your financial history, and other factors, including your cosigner's (if any) financial history. For example, a 10-year loan with a fixed rate of 6% would have 120 payments of $11.10 per $1,000 borrowed. For complete terms and conditions visit ELFI.com. Borrow responsibly

We encourage students and families to start with savings, grants, scholarships, and federal student loans to pay for college. Students and families should evaluate all anticipated monthly loan payments, and how much the student expects to earn in the future, before considering a private student loan.
